2024 JOINT ANZRSAI/RSA CONFERENCE

INCLUSIVE REGIONAL DEVELOPMENT

47th Australian and New Zealand Regional Science Association International and
5th Regional Studies Association Australasian Conference

2-3 December, ANN HARDING CONFERENCE CENTRE, Canberra, Australia

CALL FOR PAPERS

The conference this year will go back to the general theme of development with a particular focus of being inclusive. The theme hopes to cover a wide range of topics from the understanding of development, various indicators such as economic activity, income and wealth, the fulfilment of housing, transport, infrastructure, the role of technology and artificial intelligence and various other factors such as government and governance. In trying to capture the inclusiveness of development within and between people, space and place, the conference will also look at topic such as Urban-Rural Divide, Cultural, Community and Intergenerational issues.

This conference is convened jointly by the Australia and New Zealand Regional Science Association International (ANZRSAI) and the Regional Studies Association (RSA). The two Associations will bring together researchers from across academic and policy fields to explore the cutting edge of regional development and regional analysis in Australia, New Zealand and around the world. The event will be hosted by the University of Canberra on 2-3 December 2024. It will be a hybrid conference with on-line presentation and attendance available.

Proposals for contributed papers, for themed panels, or for special sessions, will be welcomed on any topic related to regional development.
