Event Privacy Statement

The Regional Studies Association is committed to safeguarding your personal data and ensuring transparent communication about how your information is used. By participating in our event, you acknowledge and agree to the following:

1. Event Registration

We collect and process your personal data to:

- Facilitate your event registration
- Communicate with you about event logistics, updates, and related information.

For co-organised events, your data may be shared with the partner organisation(s) involved solely for purposes related to the event. Post-event, we may use your contact information to:

- Share materials or content relevant to the event.
- Seek your feedback to improve future events.
- Inform you about other activities, events, and support opportunities related to our organisation.

We will not share your data with third parties unrelated to the event or its associated activities.

2. Photography and Recordings

Our events may be photographed or recorded in line with our legitimate interests to document and share event highlights. Images and recordings may be retained indefinitely and used in:

- Publications and promotional materials.
- Online platforms, such as our website, YouTube channel, and social media accounts.

If you do not wish to appear in photographs or recordings, please contact the event organiser at events@regionalstudies.org. Please note that for online events, session recordings may be published indefinitely. Participation in such sessions implies consent to process any optional information you provide during the event.

3. Ongoing Communication

If you consent to receive updates about our organisation and activities, we will retain your contact and preference data for as long as you opt in. You can withdraw your consent at any time by contacting us or following the opt-out instructions provided in our communications.
